SUSTAINABILITY WEEK

23-28 JUNE 2015

Advancing the Green Economy through the sharing of knowledge across disciplines and sectors, and by actively seeking to accelerate the total number of projects undertaken under the heading of sustainability, Sustainability Week will once again prove to have a catalytic effect.

Where government officials, private sector investors, business operators, professionals, researchers, and NGO's converge to engage on this critically important, and most fundamental consideration – sustainability. In 2015, Sustainability Week will through its innovative construction truly reflect the interconnectedness of the issues – the cause and effect of actions, and the need to balance interests in a bid to achieve the most appropriate approach in all cases. Sustainability is not a quick fix or a one-size-fits-all solution, it is about a process of reaching decisions, with due deference to the interests of all stakeholders, including those not in the room. For the first time delegates will be able to attend sessions of different seminars as these are segmented and offered in multiple programmes. The construction allows people from different sectors to encounter the opportunities and challenges from one another's perspectives, a primary step towards reaching consensus.
